

Dan McCrimmon - Master Instructor

Dan McCrimmon is a well-known instructor in both single hand and double-handed fly fishing techniques. His students leave the class having had good instruction and positive critiques of their casting skills. They also learn about the right equipment for the right fishing situation so they can keep improving their fishing experiences.

He is a qualified Master Casting instructor (MCI) and a certified two handed casting instructor (THCI) who has been teaching locally and internationally for over twenty years.

He has taught in Canada, USA, Japan, Italy, Malaysia, Korea, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, and Scotland. Dan was involved as a program examiner and testing instructor for the International Federation of Fly Fishers and served as a Board of Governor and International Director responsible for the successful expansion of the program outside North America. He was also very involved in the committee designing teaching methodologies and testing protocols for applicants wishing to be certified international Master instructors.

As a professional fishing guide on the Bulkley and Skeena Rivers systems in Northern B.C., Dan is known for providing real life fishing and casting techniques coupled with humor that help ensure successful fishing adventures for his international clients.

Dan works in the fly fishing industry as a manufacturer's representative for C. F. Burkheimer rods, Royal Wulff Fly Lines, Aquaz Waders, Douglas Outdoors and other top fly fishing brands.

'His precise and humorous training sessions and demonstrations deliver fly casting techniques that will stay with you for ever'. Richard Wentz - Editor- Flyfisher Magazine